NOTIFICATIONS

Rawalpindi, the 2nd November, 1976

S. R. O. 1069 (I)/76.—In exercise of the powers of general supervision, in administrative matters regarding abandoned properties conferred by the Abandoned Properties (Procedure) Regulations, 1975, the Chairman, Board of Trustees, is pleased to make the following rules :—

1. Title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Abandoned Properties Organisation (Guest House) Rules, 1976.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definition.—Unless the context otherwise require—

- (a) ' Act ' means the Abandoned Properties (Management) Act, 1975 ;
- (b) ' Administrator ' means Administrator appointed under section 5 of the Act ;
- (c) ' Board ' means Board of Trustees constituted under section 4 of the Act ;
- (d) ' Guest House ' means Abandoned Properties Organisation's Guest House, situated at C-136, K.D.A. Scheme No. 1, Karachi ;
- (e) ' Occupant ' means an officer who has been allotted accommodation in the Guest House and is actually occupying such accommodation ;
- (f) ' Officer-in-charge ' means the Administrator or any officer authorised by him to allot accommodation in the Guest House and perform all other functions necessary for the proper management of the Guest House.

3. Control and Management.—Subject to the general control of the Board, the Guest House shall be managed and supervised by the Administrator either by him personally or through an officer appointed by him in this behalf.

4. Eligibility.—Every officer of Grade 17 and above, who is on tour in connection with an official duty or is on leave, shall, subject to availability, be entitled to the allotment of accommodation in the Guest House.

5. Charges.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3), an officer who is allotted accommodation in the Guest House shall pay the normal rent at the following rates, namely :—

(i) For a single officer	Rs. 7.50 per day.
(ii) For an officer with family	Rs. 10 per day.

(2) For the use of air-conditioner, the occupant shall, in addition to the normal rent specified in sub-rule (1), pay a sum of Rs. 10 per day.

(3) For the duration of stay in the Guest House an occupant shall pay—

- (a) normal rent if the period of his stay does not exceed 10 days at a time ;
- (b) rent at double the normal rent if the period of his stay exceeds 10 days but does not exceed 20 days ; and
- (c) rent at four times the normal rent if the period of his stay exceeds 20 days.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule, a day shall be calculated from mid-day to the next mid-day and a portion of a day shall count as full day.

6. Allotment of Accommodation.—(1) An eligible officer desirous of obtaining accommodation in the Guest House, shall make a written request to the officer-in-charge, stating therein his name, designation, and address—the date and approximate time of his arrival—and the approximate duration of his stay.

(2) On the receipt of written request, the officer-in-charge shall, subject to the availability, allot accommodation in the Guest House to the officer making such request and, if possible, intimate to him the fact as to whether the accommodation has been allotted to him or not : provided that in exceptional circumstances the officer-in-charge shall be competent to reserve accommodation on telephonic request also.

(3) The officer-in-charge shall maintain a ' Register of Reservation ' and he shall record therein the necessary particulars of each allotment of accommodation in the Guest House.

7. Failure to occupy accommodation within 24 hours.—If an officer to whom the accommodation has been allotted in the Guest House, fails to occupy the accommodation within 24 hours from the date of its reservation, it shall deem to have been cancelled.

8. Vacation of accommodation and extension of allotment period.—On the expiry of the period of reservation of accommodation, the occupant shall vacate the accommodation but the officer-in-charge may, on the request of the occupant, extend such period for such duration as he may deem fit : provided that the officer-in-charge shall not grant extension if that accommodation is already allotted to another officer or is otherwise required for any purpose of urgent and important nature.

9. Accommodation for servants.—If accommodation is available in servant quarters of the Guest House, the same shall be provided free of cost to the servant, if any, accompanying the occupant.

10. Entry in Visitors Book.—At the time of occupying the accommodation, the occupant shall enter in the Visitors' Book kept in the Reception Office his name, designation, office address, and the date and time of his arrival. Similarly, while leaving the accommodation he shall record in the Visitors' Book the time of his departure and the amount of rent and other charges paid by him.

11. Arrangement for catering etc.—Every occupant shall be entitled to avail of free-of-charge services of the cook of the Guest House who will cook food for the occupant on the payment of actual cost of articles and eatables. Similarly, the occupant shall be entitled to avail of free-of-charge services of room-bearers, bharashas and sweepers but they shall not be required to do things which do not fall within their normal course of duty.

12. Telephone Facilities.—The occupant may use the official telephone of the Guest House for local calls only, and he shall not be permitted to use the telephone for making trunk-calls on direct-dialling but he can be permitted to make booked trunk-calls on cash payment of charges to the receptionist against a duly signed receipt.

13. Loss or damage to the property.—Any loss, damage or breakage caused by the occupant to the crockery, utensils and other articles, including fittings and fixtures of the Guest House, shall be made good by him before leaving the accommodation, by paying in cash the cost of the lost, damaged or broken crockery and other articles to the receptionist against a signed receipt and the receptionist shall enter in the appropriate register all particulars of such loss, damage or breakage and the amount of costs so recovered.

14. Decorum.—(1) The occupant shall keep the premises, furniture and bedding of the accommodation allotted to him in clean and tidy condition.

(2) The occupant shall not—

- (a) use the corridors and passages of the Guest House for storing luggage or parking cycle;
- (b) keep any pet animal in the accommodation allotted to him;
- (c) cook food in the accommodation or anywhere else in the Guest House, except in the kitchen; and
- (d) use electric appliances other than a radio or iron.

15. Payment of dues.—Rent and all other charges mentioned in the preceding rules shall be paid by the occupant to the receptionist against a duly signed receipt before leaving the accommodation of the Guest House.

16. Complaints.—An occupant may bring any complaint either to the notice of the officer-in-charge or enter the same in the Complaint Book kept by the receptionist and the complaints so made shall promptly be heeded to.

17. Cancellation of allotment.—(1) No person, excepting the officer for whom single or family accommodation has been reserved, shall be allowed to stay in the Guest House, nor the allotment or reservation of accommodation shall be transferable by such officer to any other person.

18. Any violation of these rules shall render the occupant liable to the cancellation of his allotment and ejection from the Guest House and in case the officer, to whom the accommodation has been allotted, transfers such allotment and causes an unauthorised person to stay in the Guest House, such officer shall be liable to pay four times the normal rent of the accommodation so long as the unauthorised occupation continues and he shall also be debarred from future allotment of accommodation in the Guest House, and the person in unauthorised occupation shall be ejected forthwith.

19. Cancellation of allotment in urgency or emergency.—In case of urgency or emergency, of which the Administrator shall be the sole judge, the Administrator shall be competent to cancel the reservation of any officer at any time: provided that before the cancellation of his allotment, the Administrator shall give notice of such cancellation to the occupant which shall, in no case, be less than 24 hours and in that event, the occupant shall, on the expiry of notice period, vacate the accommodation forthwith.

20. Registers.—The Administrator shall prescribe in such form the various registers mentioned in these rules, as he may deem fit and he may issue directions regarding their maintenance.

21. Relaxation of rules.—The Board may, in exceptional cases, relax all or any of the provisions of these rules on such terms and conditions, if any, which it may deem fit to impose.
