14. Appointment of polling agent.- A validly nominated candidate may, before the commencement of the poll, appoint not more than one polling agent for observing the poll and the count; and shall give a notice in writing to the Presiding Officer in duplicate, who shall return one copy thereof to the election agent after affixing thereon his seal and signature in token of his approval of the appointment.

15. Appointment of Presiding and Polling Officers.-(1) The Returning Officer may appoint a Presiding Officer to conduct the poll with the assistance of such officers as he may think necessary.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall conduct the poll in accordance with these regulations and be responsible for maintaining order during the poll.

16. Counting of votes at the close of poll.-(1) The Presiding Officer shall count the votes immediately after the close of the poll in the presence of such of the contesting candidates and polling agents as may be present.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall, immediately after the count, prepare a statement of the count in such form as may be prescribed showing therein the number of valid votes polled to each contesting candidate and the ballot papers excluded from the count.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall give a certified copy of the statement of the count and the ballot paper account to the candidates or their polling agents and obtain a receipt for such copy.

(4) After the close of the proceedings under the regulations, the Presiding Officer shall cause the packets, the statement of the count and the ballot paper account prepared by him to be sent to the Returning Officer together with such other records as the Election Committee may direct.

17. Consolidation of results.-(1) The Returning Officer shall give the contesting candidates and their election agents a notice in writing of the day, time and place fixed for the consolidation of the results, and, in the presence of such of the contesting candidates and election agents as may be present consolidate the results of the count furnished by the Presiding Officers.

(2) The Returning Officer may recount the ballot papers-

(a) upon the request of, or challenge in writing made by, a contesting candidate or his agent, if the Returning Officer is satisfied that the request or the challenge is reasonable; or

(b) if so directed by the Election Committee, in which case the recount shall be held in such manner and at such place as may be directed by the Election Committee.

(3) After consolidation of results the Returning Officer shall give to such contesting candidates and their agents as may be present during the consolidation proceedings, a copy of the result of the count notified to the Election Committee immediately against proper receipt.

18. Declaration of results.-(1) The Returning Officer shall, after consolidating the result of the count, forward the results of the count to the Election Committee which shall declare by public notice the contesting candidate who has received the highest number of votes to be elected.

(2) Where, after the count it is found that there is equality of votes between two or more contesting candidates the Election Committee shall decide the matter by lot. The contesting candidates or their authorised representatives may attend the process.

(3) In case the Election Committee is satisfied that any unfair means have been adopted by the candidates or their representatives, it may declare the whole or partial election as invalid and direct holding of fresh election within a period specified by the Election Committee at the time of declaring the election invalid.

(4) The Federal Government, upon receipt of result from the Election Committee, shall notify, in the official Gazette, elected candidates as member of the Council.

(5) The Results of an election shall be declared not later than fourteen days after its polling day.

19. Disputes regarding election and their resolution.- All disputes relating to elections shall be decided under subsection (2) of section 4:

Provided that decision of the Returning Officer or, as the case may be, the Election Committee may be challenged in two days:

Provided further that the Election Committee shall within three days on receipt thereof decide the complaint.
